To all members of Fareham Local Learning Partnership FLLP

10 November 2010

Dear Member

At the last meeting of the partnership on November 3, much discussion was had as to how we can make the partnership work effectively. All of us have concerns regarding our future funding and we agreed that working together and avoiding duplicating services will become even more essential.

Those partners present agreed to produce a Fareham Learning Providers booklet containing a digest of information on all adult (post- 16) local learning provision. Each provider is asked to contribute to this publication.

I have agreed to collect the information from providers, so could I ask you to let me have:

- 150 / 200 words on who you are and what you provide
- A learning-related picture if suitable or appropriate

Please send information by 8 January 2011.

I will collate for the next partnership meeting on 18 January with a projected publication date of Easter 2011.

This booklet is not intended to replace programmes and course details specific to each provider or schools grouping but will provide a ready reference to the range and scope of learning available across the Borough and be widely distributed.

Yours sincerely

Sarah Moss
